Taught by Erin Hull:

Erin Luchsinger Hull is a 4th generation Onondaga County agriculture producer. She owns and operates Lucky 13 Beef (www.facebook.com/lucky13beef) as well as Luchsinger's Christmas Trees (www.facebook.com/luchsingerstrees). She was born and raised on a dairy farm in Tully, NY. She still spends a good portion of her time on a tractor "making hay" for her family's crop business. Her passion is agriculture education and connecting people to their food sources. When not on a tractor she can be found in the pasture with her herd of all natural Red Angus beef cattle. She lives on a farm in Fabius, NY with her husband, 2 children, a cat, 2 dogs and an elderly house rabbit.
